

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, April 15

1998

Horne to Serve as North Alabama Science Center Executive Director

JD Horne, assistant director for Marshall's Center Operations Directorate, has been selected to serve in a loaned executive program for the next year as executive director of the North Alabama Science Center in Huntsville. This center provides a hands-on facility, designed to stimulate children's continued interest in studying the physical sciences, technology and math.

Lunch N Learn Seminar Set For Noon-12:45 p.m. Thurs. in Morris

Resume Writing Workshop 9 a.m.-Noon Thurs., Bldg. 4200 Room G-13

New Alabama Law Exempts Buyouts From State Tax

Under new legislation passed by the State of Alabama, separation incentives or buyout payments for amounts up to $25,000 are exempt from state income tax. This exemption applies to all buyouts taken in 1998 and only to employees required to file an Alabama income tax return. Contact: Edwina Bressette, 4-8115.

CFC Seeks 1998 Campaign Slogan

Slogans are being solicited for the 1998 Tennessee Valley Combined Federal Campaign (CFC). The winning slogan will be used as a planning theme for the 1998 CFC Campaign. The winner will receive recognition and a prize awarded by the Tennessee Valley CFC executive director. Slogans should be short, concise and submitted to: cathy.nichelson@msfc.nasa.gov by May 6.

Marshall Open House, May 16 Will Showcase Center's Roles